Richmond May 2010 Co-op

Recreation News will produce a feature on Richmond in its May 2010 edition. The feature will accompany a story on the re-opening of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts and will include a travel-oriented story highlighting other Richmond attractions and accommodations, photographs, and an affordable advertising section. Recreation News is the largest monthly travel, recreation, and leisure newspaper in the Mid-Atlantic region. Our 100,000 subscribers and quarter-million readers each month are largely recession-proof upper level government workers in the Washington/Northern Virginia/Baltimore area. They have average incomes of $92,500 and an average of 47 days off per year, not including weekends. We want to bring them to Richmond!
